Any player or team that refuses or avoids undergoing a doping test or falsifies the results of a test or attempts to do so or is found guilty of having taken prohibited substances, whether intentionally or not, shall be referred to the Organising Committee for the EDSO European Football Championship™ and sanctioned by the Disciplinary Committee in accordance with the FIFA Disciplinary Code.

The reserve outfit shall also be taken to every match.
3. If, in the opinion of the referee or the match commissioner, the colours worn by two opposing teams might cause confusion or prove unsuitable for television broadcasts, they shall be modified, using either the entire reserve outfit or a combination of both.
4. The goalkeepers shall wear colours contrasting with those of the two teams and the referee.
5. No item of kit worn by a field player (shirt, shorts and socks) may consist of more than three colours. If three colours are used, one shall be clearly predominant on the shirt, shorts and socks and the other two colours shall clearly be minor colours. The predominant colour shall be visible to the same extent on the back and front of the shirt and shorts. Exceptionally, a fourth colour may be used but only provided that it is the same as that used for the lettering or features permanently in the national emblem of the country concerned and covers only a very small area of the shirt as a purely decorative element; this restriction does not apply to the area for the lettering. The fourth colour is defined as a "decorative colour".
6. If thermal shorts are used, they shall be the same colour as the main colour of the shorts.

A. Preliminary competition

1. Each team shall wear its official colours as declared on the official entry form (cf. Art. 3, par. 2). 2. Each player shall wear a number. This applies especially in the case of striped shirts. A plain coloured background (either entirely light or dark, depending on the colour of the numbers) affords better legibility. These numbers shall be between 25 cm and 35 cm in height in the centre of the back of the shirt, between 10 cm and 15 cm in height on the front of the shirt in any position at chest level, and between 10 cm and 15 cm in height in any position on the front of either leg of the shorts. None of the numbers may contain advertising, design features or other elements.

B. Final competition

1. Each team shall wear its official colours as declared on the official entry form (cf. Art. 5). If the two teams' colours might cause confusion, team A of the official match schedule shall be entitled to wear its official outfit and team B shall use its reserve outfit or, if necessary, a combination of the official and the reserve outfit. The Organising Committee for the EDSO European Football Championship™ decides the matter.
2. Throughout the final competition, each player shall wear the number allotted to him on the official players' list (cf. Art. 25). The colour of the numbers must contrast clearly with the outfits (light on dark or vice versa) and be legible from a distance for spectators in the stadium and television viewers. This applies especially in the case of striped shirts. A plain coloured background (either entirely light or dark, depending on the colour of the numbers) affords better legibility. These numbers shall be between 25 cm and 35 cm in height in the centre of the back of the shirt, between 10 cm and 15 cm in height on the front of the shirt in any position at chest level, and between 10 cm and 15 cm in height in any position on the front of either leg of the shorts. None of the numbers may contain advertising, design features or other elements.
3. The player's last name or popular name (or abbreviation), not exceeding 7.5 cm in height, shall be affixed above the number on the back of the shirt and shall be clearly legible. The lettering shall be in capitals and contain no advertising, design features or other elements. The colour of the players' names shall contrast clearly with the outfits (light on dark or vice versa) and be legible from a distance for spectators in the stadium and television viewers. This applies especially in the case of striped shirts. A plain coloured background (either entirely light or dark, depending on the colour of the letters) affords better legibility.
4. At a date to be fixed by EDSO, the participating associations shall send EDSO a sample of the official and reserve outfits (shirt, shorts, socks, goalkeeper's kit etc.) for approval as well as the goalkeeper's gloves and cap intended for use during the final competition.
5. The FIFA Equipment Regulations governing the sports equipment and the colours to be used by players, goalkeepers and team officials at the final competition apply to any article worn or equipment used by a participating association.

Art. 30

With the exception of the manufacturer's trademark, no kind of identification of sponsors or any other third party or slogans of a political, commercial, religious or racist nature or any other slogans are permitted on any garments or equipment of players and goalkeepers (shirts, vests, shorts, thermal shorts, socks, gloves, caps, underwear etc.) in the entire pitch area.
2. Furthermore, no recognition of the above-mentioned nature is allowed to be visible, in any manner on the body of players, goalkeepers, other team officials or elsewhere. If a association and/or its players fail to comply with the above obligations, they will be liable to sanctions by the EDSO Disciplinary Committee.

 - socks: 20 cm² (between the ankle and the top edge)

 - wristbands: 20 cm²
 - track suit jacket: 20 cm²
 - track suit shorts/trousers: 20 cm²
4. The National Association's emblem may also be worn as a badge on the shirt, shorts and each sock but may not exceed 100 cm² on the shirt, 50 cm² on the shorts and 50 cm² on each sock or feature any advertising or other elements.
5. The emblem or name (or abbreviation) of the association may also be displayed on the shirt and/or shorts in jacquard weave provided that the colour is similar to that of the shirt or shorts into which it is woven and that it does not prevent the kit from being easily distinguished from the opposing team's kit. It is not compulsory for the emblem or name (or abbreviation) on the shirt to appear in jacquard weave but it may also be printed or affixed in a similar manner provided that it does not predominate and prevent the kit from being easily distinguished from the opposing team's kit.
6. The emblem of the national flag may also be worn on the shirt, shorts and on each sock and shall not feature any advertising, design or other elements and not exceed the following measurements:
 - shirt: 25 cm² each, if positioned once on the left and/or on the right sleeve or 25cm² each, if positioned once on the back above the number and/or once on the front at chest height.
 - shorts: 25 cm² on the right or left leg
 - socks: 25 cm² to be positioned at will
7. The official designation and/or the logo of the 2007 EDSO European Football Championship™ shall be printed or affixed to the equipment in accordance with EDSO's instructions and the applicable graphic standards.
8. For the final competition, any and all form of advertising or commercial identification on any garments or equipment other than in accordance with these Regulations (including on T-shirts, track suits, jackets, wristbands etc.) or on other material and/or accessories (kit bags, beverage containers, plastic bottles, medical bags etc.) belonging to players, goalkeepers, team officials etc. is strictly prohibited inside the stadium and during all official EDSO press conferences.
9. All items to be used by a participating association in the entire pitch area shall be subject to EDSO's prior approval in accordance with the procedure set forth by EDSO.
