Competition plan

The competition plan consisted of a preliminary round, quarterfinals, semifinals, and finals. The teams were seeded in the preliminary pool by a draw - taking their ranking on the ICSD world volleyball rankings into account. The ten (10) men teams were divided in two groups of five (5) teams and the eight (8) women teams in two groups of four (4) teams. After the withdrawal of the German's women team France moved from pool C to D, based on the ranking of the draw.

The medal ceremony

The medals were awarded by Björn ROINE – president European Deaf Sports Organisation, supported by Jan van den BRAEMBUSSCHE and Cathy SCHELVIS.

Pluses of the organization

- Cooperation TDs volleyball and the OC was good.
- The Live stream videos of the matches were very excellent.
- The results were published quickly on www.volley-sourd.fr/paris2015/en
- The results were printed at the end of the day and checked by the TDs – good team work!
- From the first day until the last day there were exciting matches. The skills level is raised, especially that of the women - it increased spectacularly! This proves that the countries are doing well.
- Also the women teams played their pool matches in the big hall to improve the equality between men and women.
- There were enough referees, line judges and scorers (in total 17), the most of them led the matches well. Three of them were deaf – an increase from 1 referee in EC 2011. The level of all the referees ranged from D (national top) to A.

Problems

- During the first days It was very hot in the halls because of the extreme high temperatures outside and the lack of air conditioning inside.
- There was not a private car with a driver available for the EDSO delegates, they travelled with the cars or buses of the OC committee members.
- Prior to Medal Ceremony there was a conflict of interests with the OC about the way to follow which Medal protocol: the EDSO's one or that of FFH. The live stream video had a major role in the course of the ceremony, so it provided a big discussion one hour before the ceremony started.
- The OC forgot to award the diplomas to the places 1 to 6 during the Medal Ceremony.

CONCLUSION

- In the field of sport terms regarding the volleyball skills level and organizational, it was the best EC so far.
- EDSO and OC need to take more attention for the preparation of the Medal ceremony the next time, the OC must follow the EDSO protocol.
- For the first time the TDs introduced the penalties fees. The fines are very high! No less than € 1.185,= during the EC and € 6.000,= prior to the EC (withdrawal Germany and Slovenia Women) were recorded.
- With a total of 33 Yellows Cards (Men 18, Women 15) and 7 Red Cards (6 Men, Women 1) the athletes were punished by the referees. There were no penalties by Red+Yellow cards together/separately.
